Hilton has donated nearly 525 million Hilton Honors points to more than 5,300 Veterans to redeem for free hotel stays while traveling for job interviews, training or certifications, whether with Hilton or in any industry.

Hilton's hiring commitment remains the largest in the hospitality industry and one of the largest in the U.S. private sector.

Hilton creates a military-friendly culture through perks and benefits, community partnerships and service projects, networking and development opportunities.

Hilton has more than 200 veteran-owned business suppliers and the number is growing year upon year.

Hilton's numerous work-from-home positions enable more than 1,800 Veterans and Military Spouses the flexibility they need.
